Band/Overall:

The current Flying Wizzards are successful in entertaining our guests as a dance band. They have a strong stage presence with positive energy throughout. They look and sound professional (experience is obvious) and they have a genuine and friendly attitude as a whole unit knowing how to make the guests feel comfortable. The appropriate atmosphere is created through a full but not overpowering sound in all locations demanded of them to perform in; even in different formations. They are on time and prepared for each set, providing smooth transitions from song to song. The Shaubar is filled with guests dancing each night and the levels are never in the way for guests to chat and socialise in the background.

Levente Bartha (Drums):

Levente is a sympathetic and bright individual. He is kind and shows knowledge of the 'personal space' principal – probably due to his experience of playing as a drummer in and outside of a band. He has shown extra effort in helping the technicians with setups and sound checks, as well as being immediate in assisting in recommending the appropriate drum heads and also with technically replacing and tuning the set instantaneously when asked for (during late hours and times of pressure).

I can recommend him highly for further contracts with the Mein Schiff Fleet.
